In preparation for our forth-coming FA Inter-League Cup game against The Staffordshire County Senior League on Saturday 5th October at Cranfield United Kick Off 3pm our representative side entertained The Cambridgeshire County League at Crawley Road (our first outing for 2years) the new management team of Dave Riddle, Shabzz Hussain and Paul Jones took the opportunity to look at 16 players from eight different clubs. (AFC Oakley, AFC Kempston Town & Bedford College, Biggleswade FC Reserves, Biggleswade United U23, Cranfield United, Queens Park Crescents, Stevington and Wilstead) the final outcome being a 1-5 defeat. Josh Townsend shooting the visitors ahead in the 18th minute before Gary Ansell-Carter doubled their lead with the last kick of the opening half.

The game in effect being settled when Ben Yeomans netted a brace inside three minutes just after the hour mark to shoot the Cambs League 4-0 ahead, Luke Harridine then made it a nap hand in the 82th minute before we pulled a goal back just 60 seconds later via Shay Fenlon (Queens Park Crescents)
