Division One A

The biggest win of the day belonged to St Joseph (Saturday) who ran out 6-1 home winners over Lea Sports PSG. Wayne Mills leading the way with a hat-trick and joined on their scoresheet by single goals from Simon Richards, Kenan Dogruer and Joe Marks against a lone PSG reply via Milton Tomlinson Dennis. Whilst just a goal behind them were Stotfold Development who went nap with a 5-1 home win over AFC Kempston Town & Bedford College Reserves. Kade Bagge, Ben Southby, Sam Heron, Brandon Dobson and Nico Coleman all finding the bag of the net against a Town reply from Alex Farley.

For Langford Reseves with goals from Dean Laing, Ijaz Rahman and Hayden Kilcullen it was a 3-0 win at Eaton Park Rangers. Whilst winning by the same scoreline at Houghton Athletic were Totternoe Reserves thanks to two goals from Ellis Capp and a single strike from Ryan Quinn.

The games Ickwell & Old Warden v Wilstead Reserves and Kempston Athletic v Arlesey Town U23 failing to beat the rain.

Division One B

With the games AFC Oakley Reserves v Pines (Luton) Bedford SA v Ampthill Town Development and The 61 FC Luton Reserves v Pitstone & Ivinghoe United Reserves failing to beat the weather. The season was to kick off with just a programme of three games, all of which went to the home sides. Henlow with two goals from Piers Le Grand and a strike from Luke Hills the 3-2 victors over Cranfield United Reserves whose goals came via an own goal and Martin Holland.

Whilst Sporting Lewsey Park with strikes from Kyle Lincoln and Liam Jarvis were the 2-0 winners over Stopsley United and Sharnbrook required just a goal from Owen Franklin to beat Flitwick Town Reserves 1-0

Division Two supported By Hyspec

The biggest win of the day went to Harlington Juniors the 7-2 home winners over Renhold. Jamie Small leading the way with a hat-trick, Tyler Ingham netting twice alongside single goals for Alex Frantellizzi and Luke Jeffery against Renhold replies via Aran Hazelwood and Ben Brown. Whilst Bedford Albion Reserves were the 5-3 home winners over CS Rovers. Josh Emmerton with a brace plus strikes from Matt Phelan, Gavin Cheema and Stefan Bucur bring up the nap hand against Rovers replies via Seam Morrison twice and Joe Campion once.

For Sundon Park Rangers it was a 3-0 away win at Lancot Park where Yveslin Eugene netted twice and Ben Pincher once. Whilst Marston Shelton Rovers Reserves and Caldecote Reserves shared the spoils in a 3-3 draw. It was the Rovers via Alex Burrows who took the lead in the 25th minute, a lead that was to last just three minutes before Jack Miller levelled matters for the visitors who were to go 2-1 in front from the penalty spot via Guissepi Follano five minutes from the break which saw the Rovers Ross Milton red carded. But on 79 minutes Perry Connelly levelled matters for the Rovers and all three points looked their's when Burrows netted his second of the afternoon four minutes from time until deep into time added on Follano with a sweet free kick from 25 yards made it 3-3 and a share of the spoils.

The games Clifton v Athletico Europa and Real Haynes v Crawley Green U23 waterlogged off.

Division Three supported by Hyspec

Flitwick Town A went nap with a 5-1 victory at Luton Allstars. Jamie Warne with a brace plus an own goal and strikes from Alan Henman and Mark Bartlett only being replied to once by Derek Maruma.
