

Bedfordshire Football League December 2007 Newsletter

Bedfordshire Football League Christmas Quiz

- 1) Name the four losing finalists in last seasons, Britannia Cup, Centenary Cup, Jubilee Cup and Watson Shield
- 2) Who were the first ever winners of The Britannia Cup, Centenary Cup, Jubilee Cup and Watson Shield.
- 3) Who were the only Bedfordshire League Club to win a Bedfordshire FA Cup Final in season 2006-07.
- 4) Of the current Bedfordshire League Clubs, who were the first to win a Bedford & District Football League Premier Division title.
- 5) What links together the grounds of Miller Road, home Meltis Corinthians and Meltis Albion and Hurst Grove the home of Liddington United Sports.
- 6) Of the four teams heading The Bedfordshire League Division Tables on Christmas Day 2006 just one failed to stay the distance and win their division title, name that team.
- 7) Which current Bedfordshire League Club has the most letters in its clubs name.
- 8) Which current Bedfordshire League Club has the least letters in its clubs name
- 9) In which position did current League Chairman, Peter Onion begin his playing career back in the early 1960's
- 10) What links together the playing career's of League Chairman Peter Onion and League Results Secretary John Allen.
- 11) If you went to Gold Street to see the home side playing hosts to The Sweetboys who would you be watching.
- 12) How many current Bedfordshire League sides have United in their title.
- 13) Name the only four current Bedfordshire League Premier Division clubs to have won a Bedford & District / Bedfordshire League Premier Division Title.
- 14) What can be seen at the home ground of Ickwell & Old Warden but not seen at any other Bedfordshire League ground.
- 15) During The Second World War, The Bedford & District Football League was suspended and replaced by the setting up of which competition.

Please send your answers by email to Peter.Francis30@ntlworld.com by December 31st 2007, all correct entries will be placed into a hat and the winning entry drawn given a pair of tickets for The Bedfordshire Football League Cup Final of their choice next April/May., the winner will be announced in the January 2008 newsletter alongside the correct answers.

New Referees Course

The Bedfordshire Football Association are now taking applications for their next referees course which starts on Wednesday 9th January 2008 at Bedford College, for anyone thinking of taking up the whistle then telephone The Bedfordshire FA on 01582-565111 who will be pleased to supply you with the full details.

Bedfordshire FA Senior Trophy

November 24th turned out to be a fine day for The Bedfordshire Football League with five our clubs making it into the last eight of the competition, four of them overcoming opposition from The Molten Sparten South Midlands League but has you can see from the quarter-final draw below the balls didn't come out of the hat to kindly and it will require another giant-killing effort from our clubs to join either Luton Borough or Caldecote into the Semi-Final draw who clash in the only Bedfordshire League tie in the games due to be staged on Saturday 5th January 2008, Kick Off 1.30pm

Sharnbrook v Arlesey Athletic
Kent Athletic v AFC Kempston Town
AFC Dunstable v Meltis Corinthians
Luton Borough v Caldecote

www. Bedfordshirefootballleague.co.uk

We are pleased to report that our above league website is growing in popularity month by month having already recorded over thirty-seven thousand hits with a average visitors tally of over four hundred people during the pass three months.

If you have not already visited the site, then please have a visit and lets us have your feedback, good or bad.

Biggles FM

Are currently back on the air for the month of December where if you tune into 87.9m wave each Saturday evening around the 5.30pm mark you will be able to hear a full reading of that days Bedfordshire Football League Results plus various reports from the days games.

New League Logo

The new Bedfordshire Football League logo is displayed at the top left handed side of this newsletter and is now appearing on both ours an the mitoo websites. plus will form the centre of this seasons mementoes for our league and cup awards.